

SONGS FROM THE PASSING SHOW OF 1918

“Carolina Rolling Stone”

Music by: Eleanor Young & Harry D. Squires

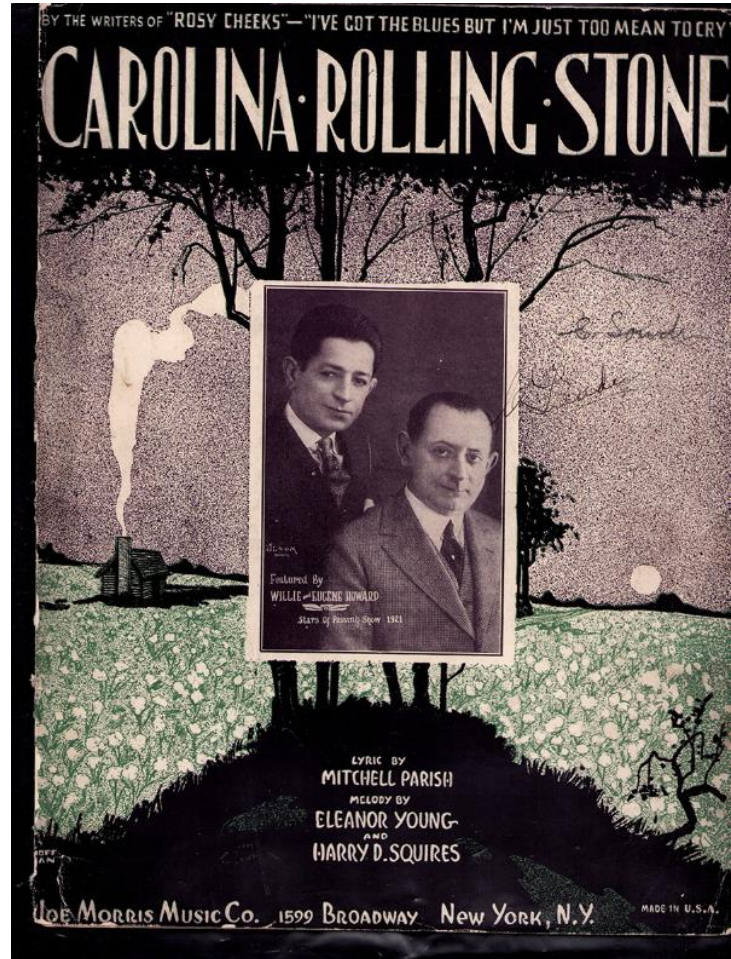

Words by: Mitchell Parish

Date: 1921

Publisher: Joe Morris Music Co.

Format: Large format

Show cover: No

Courtesy Library of Congress

In “Carolina Rolling Stone”, the main character has seen a movie where a cabin door reminds him of home sweet home, where “the fields of snowy white” are “calling [him] tonight”. It is highly unlikely that the Howards would have performed [this] number with intentional irony, instead injecting serious elements into their act. [Westmore, p. 81]