

DO RE MI

There are two versions of the sheet music for Do Re Mi. One has lettering on a juke box and the other has a marvelous caricature of Phil Silvers. What's the story?

Well, we don't really have a definitive answer as to why there are two covers. We think the juke box cover was the first edition and then they decided they wanted something better. So they created the Phil Silvers cover.

Our conclusion is that the first edition of the sheet music lists is the juke box cover and the second set is the Phil Silvers caricature. But if anyone has a better answer please let us know.
