FLORA THE RED MENACE

There are two versions of the sheet music for Flora the Red Menace. Look at the name of the lyricist in the upper left and the composer in the upper right. The first lists John Kander as the lyricist and Fred Ebb as the composer, while the second set has them, switched. What's the story?

Well, the credits in the top image are clearly wrong. John Kander did the music not the lyrics and Fred Ebb did the lyrics not the music.

So we think the first edition is the one that was wrong and they fixed it with the second set.
