HOLD EVERYTHING

There are two versions of the sheet music for Hold Everything (1928). The song list on the first ends with "Heel Beat." The song list on the second ends with "Too Good To Be True."

One of the songs from the show, "You're My Necessity," is not in the song list. That's because they changed the name of the song to "You're the Cream in My Coffee," which you'll see at the top of the song list in the second set.
